FIRST STEPS
RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD AND OTHERS

PRAYER NIGHTS AT EASTSIDE – Sundays, September 3, 17, October 1, and 22 – Dinner at 5:30pm, Prayer meeting at 6:30pm – Location: 3833 E Superior St – Jesus said "For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them." There is power in praying together as a community. Prayer transforms lives, sets people free, and creates a pathway to a deeper relationship with the Lord. Join us twice a month (1st & 3rd Sundays) at our Eastside location as we share a meal, worship together, pray for the needs of the community, and pray for each other.

WELCOME TO THE VINEYARD – Sunday, September 17 & Sunday, November 12 at 5:30pm – Welcome to the Vineyard is our membership class where you will have an opportunity to discover what the Vineyard church is really all about. We will provide an in-depth look at the Vineyard’s history, statement of faith, vision, values, and all the areas of ministry. Also, dinner will be provided! At the end of the class you will have the opportunity to become a member. Register online or at the Welcome Center. We look forward to meeting you!

MEN’S BREAKFAST – Saturday, September 23 at 9am – Who doesn’t love a Saturday morning of free bacon and pancakes, as well as time with good friends? Come hang out at our regular Men’s Breakfasts. We’ll eat together, take in a short message, and pray for each other. Please register online so we know how many people to expect.

ALPHA – Tuesdays at 6pm beginning September 26 – Alpha is a place to connect with other people who are open to exploring life, faith, and meaning. Each session includes a time to build friendship with others while enjoying a free meal, take in a short talk on an element of the Christian faith, and then a chance for each person to share their own questions and thoughts with the group. We’d love to hear your perspective! Learn more and sign up at duluthvineyard.org/alpha.

CHILD DEDICATIONS – Sunday, October 8 at the 11am service – Child Dedications are a time for parents to publicly commit to collaborating with God in raising their children to become followers of Jesus. We will also be celebrating your families immediately after service in the lobby with refreshments, and snacks! Contact Becca Eastvold at beastvold@duluthvineyard.org for more information and sign up online for our child dedication class happening on October 5.

NIGHT OF WORSHIP – Sunday, November 5 at 6:30pm – There is something powerful about a group of people pursuing God together. Our hunger for experience and encounter pulls us into a space of holy waiting. We long to drink deeply of the Spirit of God. We long to see him move in power in us, around, and through us. This is an evening where we get back and rest in the basics: worship and prayer. Come ready to respond, give, and receive.

Sunday, Oct. 8 at 11am
STUDY THE BIBLE WITH US: THE BOOK OF LUKE – Tuesdays at 6:30pm beginning September 19 – God uses the Bible to bring us to life! Through this ancient book, the Holy Spirit reveals the living God, teaches us the truth, and invites us into the Kingdom of God. This fall, join us as we dive into one of the biographies of Jesus, the Book of Luke. Although Dr. Luke interviewed the witnesses and gathered the data in order to write “an orderly account” of Jesus’ life, the Book of Luke is far from dry and academic. It is a beautiful story full of joy: singing, laughter and great joy. Other themes include how salvation has come for absolutely everyone, the work of the Holy Spirit, and an emphasis on the poor and women. Please read the first two chapters of Luke before the first class. Also, although not required, please consider purchasing N.T. Wright’s book Luke for Everyone as a helpful resource.

BAPTISM CLASS – Thursday, October 26 at 6:30pm – Join us in this class to learn more about how we baptize folks here at the Vineyard and to hear God’s heart for you as you consider this step forward in obedience to him. We’ll go through the baptism statements of faith, share stories of what God is doing in us as he leads us into baptism, and talk through a bit of the logistics of baptism day, too. Although not required prior to baptism, it is highly recommended. Register online at duluthvineyard.org.

BAPTISM CELEBRATION – Sunday, October 29 at 9am & 11am – In the Bible there are lots of stories of folks who have surrendered their lives to Jesus and then get baptized, often immediately following their surrender. Not only is getting baptized an important next step in our obedience to Christ, but it’s also a public proclamation of your decision to follow Jesus and a celebration of your joining God’s family. God often does amazing things in response to our obedience, and as people have been baptized we’ve seen them experience freedom, healing, and a deeper understanding of what Jesus is doing in their lives. We would love to celebrate and support you in your baptism! For more information go to www.duluthvineyard.org/baptism.

OPEN CALL FOR ART – Deadline for submissions is Sunday, October 15 – We believe God meets us wherever we are at. He’s with us in the highs and with us in the lows. This fall, we are taking a deeper look at lament. God is on this journey of lament with us. These past few years have brought losses to many of us. Maybe you’ve experienced the loss of a loved one from COVID-19 or experienced the loneliness of a world going through a pandemic. Maybe you’ve seen relationships fractured due to political turmoil. Or maybe, you’ve been abused, witnessed abuse, or have grieved the effects of abuse.

So often we process these things creatively, hand in hand with God. This fall we are looking to fill our gallery with artwork and poetry reflecting the seasons where God has met us in our grief and loss. To submit your pieces for consideration, please drop off ready to hang art with your name, piece’s title, medium, and a short description at our weekend services or regular office hours (Tuesdays–Fridays from 9am–1pm) by October 15. For more information or questions email Rachel at rriefenberg@duluthvineyard.org.

COME TO THE FOUNTAIN: A DAY FOR WOMEN TO EXPLORE A JOURNEY OF HEALING FROM GRIEF & LOSS – Saturday, October 28 at 10am – At any point in our life journey we experience different types of loss and grief. God is always inviting us into more, but sometimes especially in the midst of pain and loss it can be hard to hear his voice. Together we will spend time exploring how God meets us in different ways in our unique life experiences. Come with an open heart to hear what God has for you.

VINEYARD MIDWEST NORTH REGIONAL RETREAT – Tuesday, October 31 – Thursday, November 2 at Green Lake Conference Center in Green Lake, WI – This annual event is wonderful opportunity for pastors and leaders from around the Vineyard to connect, recharge and grow together. This year’s speakers are John Elmer and Christina Lowery, both serve on the VineyardUSA national team. Visit the regional website vineyardmidwestnorth.org for more details and registration.

LAMENT & REPENTANCE EVENING SERVICE – Date & Time TBD – This fall, we are learning to grab Jesus’ hand and walk over the bridge of lament to more new life in Christ. We will also use this ancient and beautiful practice to process the heartbreaking and very serious situation we are in as a community. Our former pastoral assistant (Jackson Gatlin) is accused of sexual assault, sexual harassment and spiritual abuse. Our former senior pastors (Michael and Brenda Gatlin) are accused of covering up some of Jackson’s misconduct, spiritual abuse, bullying, gossip, retaliation and various incidents of unprofessional, unethical and/or unkind behavior. (More information is available on our website.)

Although we are waiting to set the date for this special worship service until more of the fact finding is complete, we want you to know that it is coming (likely a few weeks after we receive the final GRACE report). Together in this service we will bring our sorrow to God. We will cry out and lament the trauma and betrayal the Gatlins’ behavior has caused. We will remember and lament the loss of the Gatlins’ as trusted leaders. And, we will press into our collective guilt and sorrow for our involvement in a church where the Gatlins’ could cause so much harm. This will be a safe space to shed tears, ask hard questions, and turn back to God in praise. Rather than running from our pain and grief, we’re taking the whole mess to our loving God.

GOD WORKS THROUGH OTHERS TO HELP GROW OUR FAITH.

Small groups are a vitally important part of our community — a place to let your guard down and build meaningful relationships with one another and with God.

ONLINE CHURCH TEAM - Did you know we livestream our worship service every single Sunday?! It is a sweet way to stay connected and engaged for folks near and far. Not only can they view the service but they are able to receive one on one prayer and chat with others’ watching. To let us know if you would like to join our online prayer or online greeting team, email Casey LaCore at clacore@duluthvineyard.org

LAUNDRY LOVE FUNDRAISER - Saturday, Sept. 23 9:45am-4pm & Sunday, Sept 24 11:45am-4pm - Our Laundry Love program is a tangible way to be the hands and feet of Jesus to the needy in our community. We have a fundraising opportunity to support this program by bagging groceries at the West Duluth Super One Grocery Store. To sign up for a time slot, please contact our Compassion Ministries Director, Barry Schull

‘DRUMROLL PLEASE’ CALLING ALL DRUMMERS! - "Praise him with the clash of cymbals, praise him with resounding cymbals". Right there in Psalm 150 we are encouraged to praise God in many different ways, including cymbals! Drums go hand in hand with cymbals and are a wonderful instrument to worship with. If you play drums, whether that was in a garage band in high school, gigging around town, or rocking by yourself, Rachel would love to talk with you. We are looking to get more drummers involved in our worship community. Let’s talk music, worship, and maybe even our favorite bands and drummers. Email Rachel at rriefenberg@duluthvineyard.org for more information and drum talk.

There’s nothing more satisfying than doing something that comes naturally to us, even if it might be a little bit of work. At times, it’s like we’re playing.

SERVING STEPS

STREET TEAM – Wednesdays at 5:30pm beginning September 13 at Lake Superior Plaza (14 W Superior St Duluth, Corner of Superior and Lake) – Jesus said in John 13:35 "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." We are a community that wants to serve our city well and demonstrate that the love of God is for everyone! Join us as we give away a free drink downtown as a way to bless the Twin Ports and demonstrate that the Love of God is free, no strings attached. Contact Clint for more information at cconsidine@duluthvineyard.org or just show up and be part of the team!

SMALL GROUP LEADER TRAINING – Thursday, September 14 at 6pm – Small groups are a significant expression of our life together as a church. They are often where people discover new friendships and experience real encouragement in following Jesus. Have you ever wondered what it might be like to lead a small group at the Vineyard? We invite you to come to the Small Group Leader Training. In this training, you’ll learn more about the foundational philosophy, tools, and vision for how and why we have Small Groups. You’ll have time to hear information, ask questions, and receive prayer. If you’re interested, email Brian at bbrinkert@duluthvineyard.org.

LEADERSHIP INTEREST MEETING – Sunday, October 15 at 6pm – God gives the gift of leadership and provides leaders for his church. God has faithfully provided leaders for the Duluth Vineyard and worked mightily in and through them. So, how does leadership work here? What is the Duluth Vineyard’s leadership philosophy? Who are Duluth Vineyard leaders? What qualifies someone to be a leader in our community? What kind of training and equipping do leaders receive? Join us as we answer these and any other questions you have about how we’re pressing into biblical leadership at the Duluth Vineyard.

CITY OF THE NORTH PARADE – Friday, November 17 at 5:30pm at 206 W Superior St. – We are a people who deeply love God and who deeply care for our city. We want to show the love of Jesus in practical ways around the Twin Ports. Join us at 5:30pm outside of Mainstream Fashion as we bless our city during the City of the North Parade by giving out hundreds of cups of free hot chocolate. This is a fun way to make strangers feel loved, noticed, and put into practice the radical welcome that God extends to each of us. This is a great event for the whole family to serve our community together. For more details! You could do this on your own or with your small group or workplace—the more the merrier! Don’t want to shop for gifts but still want to help out? You can donate to Adopt-a-Family online or by designating Adopt-a-Family on your gift. Contact Barry at fotv@duluthvineyard.org or call 218-525-3462 to get signed up.

ADOPT A FAMILY – As a church, we want to continue to find ways to partner with God to express his heart of compassion and love for our neighbors in the Twin Ports area. One way we get to do that is by getting Christmas gifts for our neighbors who are struggling financially. Receiving a gift tells a family in need that they are special to God and remembered. It also provides a sense of normalcy for a family as they are going through a season of need. So, for the seventh year in a row, we will be hosting an Adopt-a-Family program!

Families with kids receiving food from our Fruit of the Vine Food Shelf are eligible to apply to be matched with a Vineyard sponsor who will “adopt” their family for Christmas, and buy at least one present for each of their children that reside with them. Hello, what a great summer! We’re still walking through some heartbreaking and very serious things as a church community. And, we spent the summer asking Jesus to bring us to life. And, Jesus answered our prayer. From folks surrendering their lives to Jesus for the first time and being filled with new life, to long time followers of Jesus experiencing transformation, to physical healings and serving more people in need than ever before through our food shelf and other compassion ministries, Jesus has been bringing us to life. And, he’s not nearly done yet.

This fall, we’re invited to grab Jesus’ hand and walk over an ancient and beautiful bridge to more new life. This bridge leads to us experiencing God’s presence in new and profound ways. When Job walked over this bridge, all his questions disappeared. He had lost so much and in God’s presence he had everything. This bridge leads to us experiencing so much more of God’s love. When Jeremiah walked across this bridge, surrounded by destruction, he said: “Because of the LORD’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” Lamentations 3:22–23. This bridge leads to us experiencing a renewal, an extraordinary deepening of our faith. When King David walked across this bridge (which he did over and over again), he went from “Why, LORD, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?” to “You, LORD, hear the desire of the afflicted; you encourage them, and you listen to their cry.” Psalm 10:1, 17.

What is this bridge? Let me give you a huge hint. Job wept. Jeremiah wept. David wept. Jesus wept. They did it openly, publicly. The Holy Spirit even made sure that their weeping got recorded for all of history in the Bible, that we could see that weeping has an important place in the life of faith. But just try it yourself. Maybe we’re a little more tolerant of tears at the Duluth Vineyard. We do have lots of Kleenex. But, sadly, even weeping in our community can lead to awkwardness, folks shushing us with vague assurances (“it will be alright”), and a feeling that we should just get over it and stop crying already. Jesus wept. Do we want to be like Jesus? We need to rediscover the ancient practice of lament.

Lament is more than just tears. All humans cry, but followers of Jesus lament. In faith, we turn to God and ask: Where are you? And, if you love me, then why? And, as we invite God into that place, our hearts turn to trust, even praise. Lament gives us permission to wrestle with our sorrow instead of rushing to the end. Lament is how we bring our sorrow to God and process it.

Since we all experience sorrow in this life, lament is for us all. Whether it’s the pain of disease, death, or loneliness, the trauma caused by our abusers, or the sorrow of a broken world, including our own brokenness and sin, grief is a vicious part of all our lives. We all need to grab Jesus’ hand and learn to cross this bridge. Yes, with the accusations of sexual and spiritual abuse within our community, the Duluth Vineyard needs this now. But, we’ve always needed the bridge of lament. I wish we had pressed into lament, made it part of our lives, years ago. It offers us the hope of so much new life.

Further, because we are a community that prays for the sick and sees healing, a community where we welcome God’s kingdom to break through, we also need lament. One of the things I love most about the Duluth Vineyard is that we welcome God’s kingdom to breakthrough now. And, when we pray for folks and they’re not healed, we don’t freak out or condemn people for their lack of faith. No, we understand that God’s kingdom is “already” here at the same time that it’s “not yet” here, at least not in full. We live in that tension. And, God is sovereign. He’s the king that decides when he’ll bring his kingdom (i.e., he’ll get his will now just like it is in heaven) or when he’ll wait, his kingdom will not yet be fully here. It’s super healthy for us to understand this dynamic.

Yet, when healing doesn’t happen, when God’s kingdom doesn’t break through in miraculous ways, it can be tempting for us to think God is absent. It can be tempting for us to push through the “not yet” by just looking forward, longing for more of the “already.” But, what if we can experience God, his presence, his love, as much (if not more) in the “not yet”, in the times when he doesn’t heal us. Lament. We need lament to help connect us with God while we’re in the place that we so often actually live – in the “not yet.” In the “not yet”, if we have God, we have everything. This is the lesson of lament.

This fall, you get to decide for yourself whether and to what extent you’ll grab Jesus’ hand and walk across the bridge of lament. I hope and pray you’ll join us. It’ll be a bit awkward and messy, but I’m confident it will be well worth it. In my life, I’ve seen the power of lament and I hope you do too. When my father died a number of years ago, I will never forget a conversation I had with my sister. There was so much grief and pain from the loss of him, from what it did to our mother. And, at a certain point when I was pretty exhausted by the grief, I didn’t have any great answers, and I just said to my sister: “Well, it’s either true or it’s not. All this stuff we believe about God, it’s either true or it’s not. Now we get to see, see what we really believe.” That moment of lament, it really helped grow my faith. I knew that I wasn’t letting go of God. I never want to let go of him. He’s everything. I treasure that gift. And, I know God has more gifts as we press into lament this fall. I’m praying for profound experiences of his presence, his love, renewed trust and hope, and deeper worship. Come, Holy Spirit!

With the love of Christ,

John Kliewer, Interim Senior Pastor
